

National Radioactive Waste Management Facility (NRWMF)

Julie Murray

Project Manager

NRWMF Support

Regulatory Services Branch

julie.murray@arpansa.gov.au

Content

- Our Role
 - Regulatory & Advisory
- Project Updates
 - Communication Protocol
 - Safety Case Workshop
 - Resourcing
- Project Communication Aspects
 - “Getting it Right” Issues Paper
 - Stakeholder Engagement Strategy

Our Role

- Regulatory
 - Will be controlled facility under the Australian Radiation Protection and Nuclear Safety Act 1998 (the Act);
 - Regulatory Services Branch will consider and assess the application;
 - The CEO will also, in accordance with regulation 40 of the Regulations, invite public submissions and take into account the content of all public submissions before a licence is issued.
- Advisory
 - Provide advice on international best practice for radioactive waste management; and
 - Provide technical advice on aspects important to the site characterisation studies and the safety case development.

Project Updates

- Dept of Industry, Innovation and Science Communication Protocol
 - Under review
 - Working well
- Safety Case Workshop
 - IAEA and international expert facilitated
 - Broad participation
 - Very Successful
- Resourcing
 - Continually reviewing our capacity to manage difference aspects of the project and possible impacts to resourcing

Project Communication Aspects

- “Getting it Right” Issues Paper
 - Inform ARPANSA deliberations
- Stakeholder Engagement Strategy
 - Document Approach
 - Objective
 - Strategy (Six Pillars)
 - Tactics
 - Timeline
 - Assessing progress and measuring effectiveness
 - Building and acquiring capacity and capability
 - International insights

QUESTIONS?

ARPANSA CONTACT DETAILS

Attention: NRWMF Project Manager

NRWMFSupport@arpansa.gov.au

Department of Industry, Innovation and Science Contact Details

- For all general enquiries please call the Radioactive Waste Hotline on: 1800 682 704
- Contact the Department of Industry, Innovation and Science -
 - <http://www.radioactivewaste.gov.au/contact-us>
- For all media enquiries, please use the following contact details:
 - Phone: (02) 6213 6308
 - Email: media@industry.gov.au