The Facility Reference Level - the median or mid-point for CT scans of a particular type.

The red line shows the National DRL for AbdoPelvis CT scans which is set at the 75th percentile.

This graph shows that the majority of this facility's scans are well inside the levels established by the National DRLs.